“Members volunteer, while disciples

serve.” Today, we focus on Jesus’ ministry of teaching to become disciples. Serving is intrinsic to the identity as disciples, as exemplified through our scripture text.

Let’s pursue serving God through the church, as disciples of Jesus Christ, let us follow his examples. We are not simply members of the church, but we become members of the church because of our faith which demands active discipleship, service and witness to the love of Christ.

Tomorrow (February 25, 2019) is a holiday as we join in the anniversary of the EDSA People Power revolution which ended the dictatorship of Ferdinand Marcos and installed into the presidency Mr. Corazon C. Aquino, widow of the assassinated Senator Benigno (Ninoy) Aquino. This event affirms once more the power that resides among the people of God who have united themselves in following God’s will for the restoration of freedom and democracy in our land.

FEBRUARY is Membership Month

We reiterate our call to all those who are in the ages 11-13 who want to join our communicants class which start in March 2, 2019, 9 to 3PM at the Conference Room.

Those who wish to apply for the governing membership status, you may also enlist with Rev. Alpuerto for the membership orientation program. Just fill up the application form that is also printed in this issue.

Moderation is key By: Nenita P. Tayko
 Even when exercising, we should not overdo it. Some people die in the gym, the courts, or while running a marathon. Moderation and listening to your body signals may save you from danger. Preparing for a marathon, doing warm-up & cool-down exercises as well as resting if you are tired and stopping to drink may be of help to contribute to one's longevity.
