

RYAN CAYABYAB was born on May 4, 1954 as Raymundo Cipriano Pujante Cayabyab, to an opera singer mother Celerina Pujante and father Alberto Cayabyab. He attended the University of the Philippines (UP) educational system from grade school to college, and taught for almost 20 years at the UP College of Music. He emerged as the only Asian winner in the 2001 Onassis International Cultural Competitions; the epitome of the homegrown Filipino talent in the world arena of music. Cayabyab is a composer, arranger, producer, music director, conductor, performance artist, television show host, music educator, and arts administrator.

As music director, conductor, and accompanist, he has performed in the Lincoln Center, the Carnegie Hall, the Kennedy Center, the Washington Convention Center, the Shrine in Los Angeles, the Orpheum in Vancouver, and even at the Circus Maximus of Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. He has traveled as music director of various concerts in Southeast Asia, Australia, Germany, France, Spain, The Netherlands, Japan, and the United States. He has worked in the same shows with Sammy Davis, Jr. (Las Vegas, 1980) and Frank Sinatra (Manila, 1994). He has conducted the Philippine Philharmonic Orchestra for special performances of jazz singer Dianne Schuur and pianist Jim Chappel. He has performed as music director in command performances for King Hasan II in Rabat, Morocco, King Juan Carlos and Queen Sophia of Spain in Manila, King Fahd of Saudi Arabia in Tangiers, Queen Beatrix at the Noordeinde Palace in The Netherlands, and U.S. President Bill Clinton in Boston, Massachusetts.

As a composer, his eclectic output traverses age, unraveling an abundance of musical gems: several masses, a violin concerto, two full-length ballets, twelve musicals, an opera, solo and ensemble instrumental pieces, short symphonic works, numerous film and television scores, three one-man a cappella albums, solo CDs, and a hefty yield of popular songs recorded by top Filipino singers spanning over three decades. His works have copped the major prizes in the Onassis International Cultural Competitions 2001, the first Metro Manila Popular Song Festival 1978, the First Seoul Song Festival 1978, the Voice of Asia Song Festival 1992 in the former U.S.S.R., the Tokyo Music Festival 1993, the New York Film and Television Awards 1991, and the Asia Pacific Film Festival 2018. He is a TOYM Awardee (1978), a CCP Parangal Sentenyal sa Sining at sa Kultura awardee (1999), a Gawad CCP Awardee (2004), a Lifetime Achievement awardee from AWIT Awards (1996) and from Aliw Awards (2008); a Natatanging Gawad Buhay awardee from Philstage (2011), a MYX Magna Awardee (2012), and was recently given a Papal Award Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice in 2013 for his invaluable contribution to sacred music literature in the Philippines.

Cayabyab has won a total of thirteen best movie score awards from the various Philippine film award-giving bodies, including one from the Asia Pacific Film Festival in Taiwan, twenty-one awards from the recording industry, plus countless gold record awards for various commercial recordings as well as a lifetime achievement award from the recording industry in 1996. He has produced top-selling and award-winning albums, from the popular Filipino teen group Smokey Mountain to theater royalty Lea Salonga, and the now defunct San Miguel Philharmonic Orchestra and The San Miguel Master Chorale. "Ryan, Ryan, Musikahan" the television show, has won a total of fourteen awards as best television musical show and for Cayabyab, as best show host.

He was the executive and artistic director of The San Miguel Foundation for the Performing Arts from 2001-2006. In 1986, together with his wife Emmy, he established The Music School of Ryan Cayabyab, a music school that specializes in developing outstanding performance artists. The head judge of the first season of Philippine Idol, he was also Headmaster of ABS-CBN's Pinoy Dream Academy, and released a CD of his new works with a new, exciting group of solo singers collectively known as The Ryan Cayabyab Singers, as well as a new collection of his works, PDA Scholars Sing Cayabyab.

From 2010-2016 Ryan did advocacy work in music education as artistic director of 7101 Music Nation, spearheading a national songwriting and singing camp held annually called Elements Music Camp; from 2012-2016, he was executive director of the Philpop Musicfest Foundation which promotes and champions original Pilipino music through the Philippine Popular Music Festival and other various projects, and currently chairman for the Philpop Music Festival; from 2013 to the present he is the producer/workshop master for Akapela Open, the national contemporary a cappella group movement in the Philippines. His other advocacies include the Pinoy Playlist Music Festival featuring only Filipino music in the three-day festival; and the Bayanihan Musikahan, a fundraising movement involving artists partnering with the urban marginalized sector.

Conferred with an Order of National Artist for Music on October 25, 2018, and as a laureate of the Ramon Magsaysay Awards in 2019, he continues to teach in his music school, and in various national workshops run by NGOs and other music organizations in the pursuit of educating young musicians and creative music artists.

THE PLEDGE

With a solemn sense of my responsibility

I pledge myself

to hold my diploma as a sacred trust,

an emblem of my obligation to serve;

to hold it with untarnished Honor to myself

in generous loyalty to my Alma Mater;

and with Fidelity to my Country

my fellowmen, and my God.
