NOTES

ID Fee is charged to Grade 1 students and all new enrollees to cover the cost of issuing official Silliman University identification cards. Foreign Student Fee is charged to all students of foreign nationality and supports services and administrative requirements specific to foreign student enrollment and compliance.

PROPOSED NEW FEE

The Admissions Fee is charged only to new elementary enrollees registering for the first time at Silliman University to cover the administrative costs of processing and evaluating new student applications and enrollment. The Health Services Fee is charged to cover expenses for medical supplies provided at the University clinic and its satellite clinics for students.

The Annual Medical and Dental Examination Fee is charged to support the expenses for students' annual medical and dental examinations, ensuring that the dental health of elementary students, particularly those in Grades 1 to 5, is properly monitored and protected.

DISCONTINUED FEES

The Service Learning Activity Fee, Student Center Fee, and Outreach Activity Fee have been discontinued, with their amounts transferred to the Students' Activity Fee. This change aims to promote more student activities and ensure that these activities are adequately funded.
