Fourth SUNDAY OF LENT

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Today's Gospel describes the reason for our joy: God's great love for us has been revealed in Jesus. Through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection, Christ has reconciled us with God and one another.

This great love of the Lord for us may be reflected in the kind of relationship and deep friendship He had with the disciple who is named as John the Beloved. In the references to this disciple in the gospel of John, the texts actually never identify him by name. He is instead called the "other disciple" or "the disciple whom Jesus loved." John refers to himself as the beloved disciple not in a boastful or exclusive manner, but in a way that invites us to see ourselves in that position.

Jesus loves everyone of us to the end and wishes that all of us may also become His disciples and enjoy the fullness of a loving relationship with Him. He laid down His life for us that we might have life and have it more abundantly. Each of us is the "beloved disciple" if only we love Him and one another as He loves us.

Love is a major theme of John's writings. It is John who makes explicit what is illustrated throughout scripture and in our daily lives too - that God loves us, but even more, "God is Love" Himself in His infinite very being.

To be one with the Lord, then, is to be one with the fullness of Love not simply as a sentiment, but as a living reality. This is the Good News and this is why we say with the disciple, as he did in concluding the Book of Revelation, "Come, Lord Jesus!"

Travel safely

Each day we move around from point A to point B. Whether we are walking, running or riding a vehicle, safety should be foremost in our minds. An accident may happen if we are careless or not mindful of our surroundings. So observe traffic rules, be alert, and pray without ceasing. Remember: the life you save could be your own! Happy Sunday!
