STUDENT HOUSING AND RESIDENCE DIVISION (SHRD)

Going away to college can mean major lifestyle changes for students who are living away from home for the first time. Dormitory living can make the transition easier, combining the opportunity for freedom and fun with reassuring comfort and security.

Residence life at Silliman University provides a balance between the educational and social needs of students, such as lectures and discussions, athletics, spiritual, social and cultural programs, and other experiences.

Silliman University operates regular and cooperative dormitories. These dormitories provide comfortable living conditions for approximately 800 students.

VISION

We envision a student campus housing that is safe, adequate, clean and responsive to the arising challenges and growing needs of student-residents for holistic integration into the Silliman community.

MISSION

We strive to complement the university's goal for Christian quality education through a wholesome, safe and conducive living condition for the student-resident's total development manifested by desirable life skills and healthy lifestyles.

OBJECTIVES OF SILLIMAN UNIVERSITY DORMITORIES

1. To provide living conditions with facilities that is adequate, clean, healthful and comfortable at reasonable cost.
2. To help student-residents learn useful and desirable lifestyle and study habits.
3. To establish and develop human relations skills through respect for one another, cooperation, friendship and courtesy.
4. To guide student-residents and to develop in them an intelligent attitude toward recreation and use of leisure time; to recognize leisure time as an opportunity to expand one's experience.

5. To train student-residents in self-management skills and democratic living through various organizations and worthwhile community activities that will ultimately contribute to the good of the society in general.
6. To offer opportunities for spiritual growth and training of Christian character and the counseling program.
7. To encourage student-residents to accept increasing responsibility for their own lives and the full consequences of their decisions and actions.
8. To assist the university in the development of a well-rounded personality for the individual student-resident-citizen who is being prepared to take their places as individuals and as members of their social group in a democracy.

TYPES of DORMITORIES

Regular Dormitories

There are ten regular dormitories on campus. Six of these dormitories are directly supervised by Dormitory Manager/Advisers who are also full time staff of the university. Two identified regular dormitories provide accommodation for Junior High School students: Davao Home for girls and Doltz Hall for boys. The regular dormitories are the following:

WOMEN

Channon Hall
Edith Carson Hall
Larena Hall

MEN

Vernon Hall
Doltz Hall

COED DORMS

Pulido Hall
Woodward Apartment
RVDC Honor Hall

COED Dormitories

Pulido Hall- for eighteen years old and above and or post-graduate students. Optional dining service.

Occidental Hall- a guest dormitory that accommodates for foreign students on short term special courses as well as alumni, friends and parents. No dining service

Cooperative Dormitories

The following are the cooperative dormitories on the main campus:

WOMEN

Azucena Cottage
Sampaguita Cottage

MEN

Ipil Cottage
Molave Cottage
Narra Cottage

There are two cooperative dormitories for women and three for men. These dormitories are designed to accommodate freshmen students. Each room accommodates six (6) residents. Two of them are big sisters (Big Sis) or big brother (Big Brod).

The Big Sisters (Big Sis) or Big Brothers (Big Brod) in every room carry an important role and great responsibility to her/his small sisters or brothers. He/she is a role model, a resident worthy of respect – disciplinarian, God-fearing, and a good listener. Simply put, a Big Sis or Big Brod provides good example to her small sisters or brothers.

Cooperative dormitories are managed by Dormitory Advisers who are either full-time faculty or staff or selected graduate students.

The residents undertake some housekeeping tasks and assist in the meal – planning and preparation of the food with the supervision of the Dormitory Adviser. Every resident is required to pay 2 months for their fixed board upon enrollment. This will cover for the 1st month and the last month within the semester, respectively. Succeeding payment schedule is posted to guide students and parents in settling their accounts. Unlike the regular dormitories, cooperative dormitories have their own cooks who make marketing for food preparation everyday. It means that the marketing needs of the dormitory cook is dependent on the timely payments made by the residents to the Business and Finance to where the Dormitory Adviser requests for cash advances from for the daily marketing expenses.

At the start of the school year, the Dormitory Adviser prepares the projected revenue and expenses. This shall be presented to the residents so they will be aware of where their money is going. At the end of every semester, the Dormitory Adviser will present the financial statement to the residents. A copy of which shall be posted at the conspicuous area within the dorm.

Dormitory Officers

Each dormitory is encouraged to elect officers in order to deliberate, decide and effect activities to enrich living experiences. The governing body for each dormitory varies, but generally consists of a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, social, sports, and religious life chairperson. Dormitory meetings, scheduled regularly throughout the school year, give residents a chance to become acquainted with one another, plan activities, discuss problems, and become acquainted with dormitory and campus activities.

All inquiries regarding dormitory service should be addressed to the Student Housing and Residence Division, Office of Student Affairs, at the Second Floor, Oriental Hall.

Dormitory Big Brods and Big Sis Program

The dormitory management selects upperclass residents based on their performance, to guide the freshmen and new students in their adjustment to the dormitory and University life during their first year in the University. These upperclass residents are selected for their leaderships experience, training, scholarships and the desire to help students. They act as liaison between freshmen and the dormitory management and to the University in general. These upperclass residents assist and work closely with the dormitory management in promoting and implementing pleasant living-learning atmosphere in the dormitory.

Dormitory Management Council (DMC)

The Dormitory Management Council (DMC) is composed of the Dormitory Managers/Advisers, Dormitory Advisers and the Head of the Student Housing and Residence Division (SHRD). The Dean of Students seat as an ex-officio member of the Council.

The Council elects its own officers every start of the school year and decides on the frequency and place of its meetings. Among its functions are to define & review the policies and programs of student dormitory governments, review, appraise and advise on the implementation of dormitory rules & regulations & interpret university regulations concerning dormitories. The Council coordinates its programs and activities and promotes cooperation and understanding between the management and residents of all dormitories.

The dormitory management shall conduct a preliminary investigation of all alleged or reported violations of dormitory rules and regulations. All complaints or reports of violations of dormitory rules and regulations, including this Dormitory Manual, shall first be submitted to the dormitory management, who shall conduct a preliminary investigation and accordingly impose the appropriate sanctions. If necessary or if the parties involved believe that the sanctions imposed by the dormitory management is improper, the matter may be brought to the attention of the Head of SHRD.

For minor infractions involving disciplinary sanctions other than suspension, dismissal or expulsion from the university, the Head of the SHRD shall conduct the regular investigation and impose the appropriate penalty, which may be appealed to the Dean of Students.

With respect to serious violations, which may involve suspension, dismissal or expulsion from the university, the Dean of Students shall convene the University Disciplinary Board (UDB) to investigate and impose disciplinary measures based on the dormitory management report. The decision of the Board is final except in cases involving suspensions, dismissal or expulsion from the university, which may be appealed to the president.

The dormitory resident shall have the right to be accompanied by any person of his/her choice in all proceedings before the Dormitory Management, the Office of Student Services (OSS), the University Disciplinary Board or the President. Such person shall be informed of this right before any form of investigation is conducted.

Effectivity

The Rules and Regulations take effect upon signing and approval of the dormitory space occupancy application/receipt of the DAS until the last academic day, or upon withdrawal from the Dormitory/University.
